AS ONE made cash contribution to LAB LOGISTICS GROUP, a cooperative entity owned by laboratory dealers in Europe
-Aiming to accelerate purchasing European products-

OSAKA, JAPAN--AS ONE CORPORATION (AS ONE, Domicile:Osaka Japan, President:Takuji Iuchi) is pleased to announce that it completed cash contribution procedures to Lab Logistics Group GmbH(LLG, Domicile: Meckenheim, Germany), which is the central organization of a cooperative privately owned by laboratory dealers (the Partner Dealers) all over Europe. The contribution amount is €230 thousand around (2.0% share). By this contribution, AS ONE is aiming to rapidly widen its merchandise assortments as well as to reduce its cost of purchasing European products.

Also, AS ONE is capable of expanding its sales market in Europe through transactions with LLG and the Partner Dealers.

LLG has 33 Partner Dealers spread over Europe and the total turnover of each Partner Dealer (incl. AS ONE) reaches €800 million. AS ONE corresponds to the sole Partner Dealer in Asia and LLG intends both to sell its European merchandises to Asia and to purchase scientific instruments made in Japan and/or Asian countries through AS ONE.

AS ONE currently imported European products in amount of €2.5 million around per year. It expects to purchase them from LLG in the special prices adopted only to the Partner Dealers after this cash contribution and to reduce minimum quantities of orders and transportation cost under advantage of Partner Dealers of LLG.

Since AS ONE has not explored the European market yet, LLG and the Partner

Dealers are anticipated to enable AS ONE to develop its sales channel in the whole Europe.

AS ONE will enhance its business in Europe as the fourth overseas market subsequent to China, USA (100% owned subsidiary exists in each country) and South East Asia (importing merchandises to the area).
