Hinterstoisser, President - International of TRUNK

"Since the opening of TRUNK(HOTEL) CAT STREET in 2017, followed by TRUNK(HOUSE) and TRUNK(HOTEL) YOYOGI PARK, our brand has continued to grow consistently. Now, TRUNK is entering its next phase - expanding beyond Japan and taking its first steps into the global market.

nurturing talent, I deeply believe in the brand's potential to bring a modern interpretation of Japanese hospitality to the world's metropolitan cities. I look forward to seeing inspiring TRUNK hotels around the world," said Toni

With Toni's deep industry experience, global perspective, and dedication to creating memorable hospitality experiences, I am confident that he will bring fresh ideas and valuable insights that will lead to new opportunities for TRUNK. We are truly excited to share our values and work together to shape the next chapter of the brand's journey."

■ TRUNK(HOTEL)

As a boutique hotel brand originating in Japan, TRUNK(HOTEL) opened in May 2017 in Jingumae, Shibuya, with the concept of "socializing," which means "living each day in your own way, without forcing yourself, and with a social purpose." In 2019, the brand opened TRUNK(HOUSE), an exclusive, one-building rental accommodation facility renovated from a former geisha training studio in Kagurazaka. In September 2023, TRUNK(HOTEL) YOYOGI PARK opened in Tomigaya, Shibuya. The brand aims to create hotels with unique concepts tailored to each location, offering a one-of-a-kind luxurious stay experience.

In addition to TRUNK(HOTEL) YOYOGI PARK, TRUNK(HOTEL) CAT STREET in Shibuya and Jingumae, and TRUNK(HOUSE) in Kagurazaka have also won numerous domestic and international awards.
