1. Overview

February 2026 saw an early surge in demand for spring merchandise due to rising temperatures, resulting in strong sales of new products. Additionally, the new shoe collection launched at month-end also got off to a solid start, underpinning overall seasonal sales. Consequently, total company sales (physical stores + e-commerce) reached 115.3% of the previous year's level for the same month, maintaining continued high growth. From March onward, we will aim for further business expansion and brand value enhancement by launching the full rollout of our 2026 Spring/Summer season new products, targeting the peak spring golf season.
