Notice of System Disruption Due to Cyberattack (Third Report)

COTA CO., LTD. (Head Office: Kumiya-cho, Kuse-gun, Kyoto Prefecture) announced on March 30, 2026, that it had experienced a system disruption caused by a cyberattack.

We hereby announce that, as a result of an investigation conducted in collaboration with external experts, it has been determined that this system disruption was caused by a ransomware infection. To prevent further damage, the company will refrain from disclosing detailed information regarding the ransomware; however, it has completed isolating internal systems suspected of infection and disconnecting the network.

At this time, no leakage of personal information or other data has been confirmed; however, should any such leakage be identified, the company will promptly disclose it.

Furthermore, there has been no change in the status of operations, and production, order receipt, and shipping continue as normal.

The company sincerely apologizes for the inconvenience and concern this matter has caused to its customers, business partners, and other stakeholders.
