[Delayed]Notice Regarding System Disruption Caused by Unauthorized Third-Party

Access

FUKUVI CHEMICAL INDUSTRY CO., LTD. (the “Company”) hereby announces that a system disruption believed to have been caused by unauthorized third-party access has occurred on certain servers hosting the English-language websites operated by the Company.

The Company sincerely apologizes for the considerable concern and inconvenience caused to its customers and other stakeholders.

On September 16, 2026 (Wednesday), the Company discovered that certain servers hosting its English-language websites had been subject to unauthorized external access. The Company implemented the necessary measures on the same day, including suspending all affected websites.

[Affected Websites]

fukuvi-jp.com, subdomains hosted on the same server, fukuvikenzai.com

The Company is currently investigating and taking measures to delete all data and all automated execution settings across the entire account, including all domains and subdomains, and to restore the affected systems. The Company is also continuing its investigation and response efforts to identify the method and route of intrusion and determine the scope of the impact, including the possibility that data or other information may have been leaked externally.

If the Company expects this matter to have a material impact on its consolidated financial results, it will promptly disclose the relevant information.

The Company sincerely apologizes for the inconvenience caused to its customers and business partners.
