3. Message from Daisuke Kanai, Representative Director, President and CEO, on the Company Name Change

We are pleased to announce that our company (formerly Insource Digital Academy Corporation) will change its company name to “Insource Consulting & Digital Corporation,” effective November 1, 2026.

Until now, we have provided human resource development services specializing in the digital field. With this company name change, we intend to leverage our accumulated expertise to expand our service offerings and help customers address complex management challenges.

We also plan to merge with our group company, Insource Consulting Corporation, on January 1, 2027. Through this merger, we will establish a structure that enables us to provide integrated expertise in both digital solutions and human resource development and organizational development.

We look forward to your continued support.

The Company will continue to stay attuned to changes in society and promptly develop the services needed today.
