TV TOKYO HOLDINGS FY 2026 1H Financial Summary

<Sales and Profits Drop as Broadcast Revenues Fall, Anime and Streaming (Consolidated) Earnings Record>

・Consolidated net sales decreased 6.0% to 75.19 billion yen and consolidated operating income decreased 65.0% to 2.47 billion yen.

・Terrestrial and BS broadcasting (consolidated): Net sales saw a significant decline of 10.1%. This was due to a substantial drop in TV TOKYO's broadcasting revenue, driven by uncertainty in the global situation.

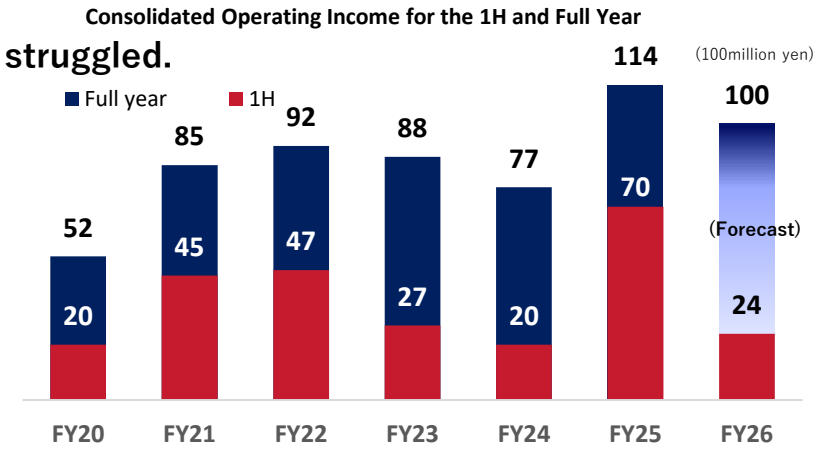

・Anime and streaming (consolidated): Operating income increased 11.1%. TV TOKYO's rights business achieved record-high levels on the back of strong overseas anime game and product adaptations.Achieved record levels.

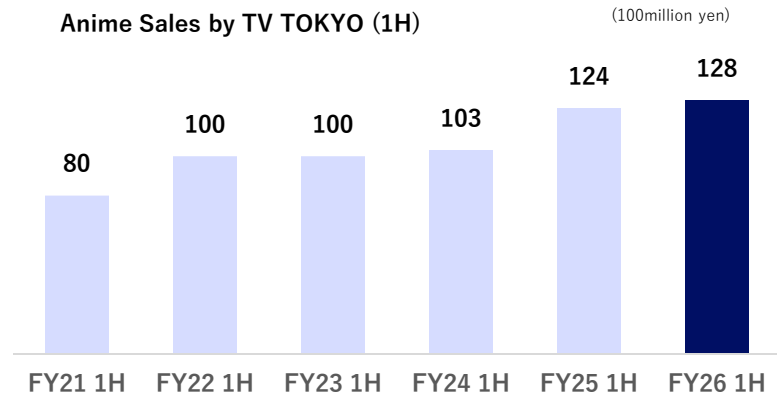

In the Streaming business, sales of new dramas to Streaming plat forms increased, but AVOD struggled.

<Lowered full-year forecast: Operating income to ¥10 billion >

・Anime sales will continue to grow in the second half of the fiscal year, but uncertainty remains over the advertising market.

・Dividend forecast (¥100 per 1 share) remains unchanged.

Status of Main Content in "Anime " and" Streaming "

[Anime Business]

Mainstay titles "NARUTO " and" BORUTO " continue to enjoy strong sales of smartphone games, commercialization, and Distribution overseas.
Commercialization of "Yu-Gi-Oh " also contributed.

[Streaming Business]

Large-scale global project for “NARUTO” launched! A Brand-New Four-Episode Anime Series “NARUTO x NINKŪ”

©Masashi Kishimoto Scott,Koji Kiriyama/SHUEISHA TV TOKYO PIERROT

“PROJECT RASENGAN,” a large-scale global initiative that sets out a vision for the future of the NARUTO IP, has been launched. In addition to producing new anime and manga, the company will develop a medium- to long-term roadmap for expanding the franchise into a wide range of areas, including games and merchandise, and pursue diverse business initiatives for fans around the world.
As part of this initiative, the company announced the production of a new anime series, “NARUTO x NINKŪ.” This crossover brings together “NARUTO” and the legendary manga “NINKŪ,” which greatly influenced it. Both manga are published by Shueisha under its Jump Comics imprint. The four-episode series will feature an entirely new story in which the worlds of the two works intersect.
The project is supervised by NARUTO creator Masashi Kishimoto and NINKŪ creator Koji Kiriyama. It brings together leading creators, including director Noriyuki Abe and character designer and chief animation director Tetsuya Nishio, both of whom worked on the TV anime series “NINKŪ” and “BORUTO: NARUTO NEXT GENERATIONS.”
