*1 “Profit from business activities” on the consolidated statement of profit or loss is presented as a measure that enables continuous comparison and assessment of the Group’s business performance. “Profit from business activities” is calculated by subtracting “cost of sales,” “selling, general and administrative expenses,” and “other expenses” from “revenue” and adding “share of profit (loss) of investments accounted for using the equity method” and “other income” to the resulting amount. “Other income” and “other expenses” consist of dividend income, gains or losses on sales of fixed assets, impairment losses on fixed assets, and others.

*2 Beginning with the interim consolidated accounting period ended September 30, 2025, the business operations related to Mitsubishi Logisnext Co., Ltd. (currently Logisnext Co., Ltd), and its subsidiaries and affiliates, have been classified as discontinued operations. Accordingly, “revenue”, “profit from business activities”, and “profit before income taxes” are presented excluding discontinued operations, reflecting amounts for continuing operations only. (6) Notes to Condensed Quarterly Consolidated Financial Statements

- Notes to Going Concern Assumption: None

- Operating Segment

(i) Overview of reporting segments

The reporting segments of the Group are components for which discrete financial information is available and whose operating results are regularly reviewed by MHI's Board of Directors to make decisions about resource allocation and assess their performance.

The Group manages its businesses by business domains and segments. Each business domain and segment engages in its business activities by formulating comprehensive strategies on products and services which are provided in both domestic and overseas markets. Accordingly, MHI determines its reporting segments by aggregating these business domains and segments based on similarities in customer and product characteristics

As of April 1, 2026, the Group has reorganized its corporate structure. Consequently, the previous four reporting segments - "Energy Systems," "Plant & Infrastructure Systems," "Logistics, Thermal & Drive Systems," and "Aircraft, Defense & Space" - have been restructured into four new segments: "Energy Systems," "Plant & Infrastructure Systems," "Industrial Solutions," and "Aircraft, Defense & Space."

Main products and services in each reporting segment are as follows. Segment information for six-month period ended September 30, 2025 has been restated based on the revised reporting segment classification.

Energy Systems	Thermal power systems (GTCC* and Steam power), Nuclear power systems (Light-water reactors, Nuclear fuel cycle & Advanced solutions), Aero engines, Compressors, Marine machinery * Gas turbine combined cycle
Plants & Infrastructure Systems	Metal machinery, Commercial ships, Engineering (Transportation systems, Chemical plants), Environmental systems, Machinery systems (paper converting machinery, ITS*, Test equipment) * Intelligent Transport Systems
Industrial Solutions	Air-conditioning & refrigeration systems, Engines, Turbochargers, Automotive thermal systems, Data center & energy management
Aircraft, Defense & Space	Commercial aircraft, Defense aircraft, Missile systems, Naval ships, Maritime systems (torpedoes), Special vehicles, Space systems

The Data center & energy management business, which was previously excluded from the reporting segments, has been included in the "Industrial Solutions" from the current fiscal year due to a review of the Group's internal management structure. The segment information for the six-month period ended September 30, 2025 is restated to reflect these changes.

As described in the notes (discontinued operations), in the previous fiscal year, the Group classified the business operations related to Mitsubishi Logisnext Co., Ltd. (currently Logisnext Co., Ltd.) and its subsidiaries and affiliates, which had been included in the "Logistics, Thermal & Drive Systems," as discontinued operations. Consequently, related amounts have been excluded from the amounts for the six-month periods ended September 30, 2025 and 2026, respectively.
